

Dear CPAS,

I am writing to you as a fan of your work and a fellow enthusiast of urban and architectural studies. I have been following your projects and publications for a long time and I admire your vision and creativity.

I would like to offer you a gift of some of my books and papers that I have written on the topics of urban planning, design, and sustainability. I also have a copy of my thesis that I defended last year at the University of Paris. I think you might find them interesting and useful for your research and education activities.

If you are interested in receiving this gift, please let me know how I can send it to you. I would be honored if you could accept it and share your feedback with me.

Note :(Please find attached full Theiss and books and i sent paper in past Email).

Thank you for your attention and your inspiring work.

Sincerely,

HUDA MOHAMED IBRAHIM AL-Baz (Huda, M, El-BAZ) –
